SATURDAY, JUNE 9, 1866.

Governor Curtin has appointed Charles R. Coburn Superintendent of Common Schools for the State of Pennsylvania.

THE Waynesburg Republican says the renomination of Mr. GEORGE V. LAWRENCE for Congress, will be unanimously ratified by Greene County.

SECRETARY SEWARD gave a dinner party on the 6th instant, and the fact that sundry radicals were among the guests was held to be of political importance.

MR. GLENNI W. SCOFIELD will certainly be re-nominated for Congress in the 19th District. Mr. De Camp, of Erie, and Mr. Souther, of Elk, are his competitors. The former recently a Democrat; the latter a Republican from the start.

So small was the concern of the people of Richmond for Mr. Jefferson Davis that when his case was recently called only nineteen persons were in the Court-room. Mr. W. B. Reed frankly confessed his "personal sympathy" for the "Stern Statesman." But his confession was needless.

A TRUSTWORTHY private letter from Arkansas, received by a high official in Washington, states that General Steedman is carrying on a plantation at Pine Bluff, Ark., and that negroes were transported thither at Government expense from Atlanta, Ga., of which State he was military commander.

ON Tuesday last the receipts of crude oil at Pittsburgh, by the Allegheny river, reached the enormous amount of 50,032 barrels. If anything like such an average could be maintained, and there is no reason why it should not, the oil crop of Pennsylvania will soon rival the coal crop in value."—Philadelphia Bulletin.

No such amount of oil was received here. The statement was the coinage of a journal here that has systematically misquoted transactions in oil—some are uncharitable to infer in the interests of speculators. The actual receipts were 30,000 barrels less than 50,000, and so our reliable reporter stated at the time.

A CORRESPONDENT of the Lawrence Journal says:

"The west claims, and justly so, that the next Senator shall be taken from the west. We say this without any prejudice to any gentleman named, or to be named in the east. We insist that the west shall have her proper claims respected, and that western Representatives shall not be forestalled and dragooned into the support of any one by sly, shrewd politicians, snaking into conventions resolutions of instructions. This is highly improper—it is low political trickery. The people will rebuke all such partizan engineering. Any wire-worker, who undertakes that job will, we are well assured, get his fingers burned."

A Squirrel Hunt by C. Sill.

I would say something, but Penn street is filled with so many Dental tires that for a man to exhibit realities he is cast in the shade. So I believe it best to keep still, do good work, and go a squirrel hunting now and then; for, with good assistance, business will attend to itse'f. But let me tell you a little about a hard pressure gun I was trying last week. It was not a pop gun; as some might suppose from the great pressure used against my shoulder to push the load out. I made the purchase of Mr. Kennedy, 38 Fifth street, and, of course, being a green recruit in sporting life, I naturally felt very much delighted with the rig, (which I could very illy afford,) and started for the State of Ohio, believing that to be of sufficient size for a four days hunt without going over the ground twice. Through the kindness of the conductor I learned the locality of the State line, and when to get out. Then began a spirited drive for any wild thing with hair or feathers. I determined to look for squirrels the first day, and so pursued with a great deal of energy all the apple orchards and wheat fields I could see, but nary a squirrel. I put up at a farm house about seven in the evening. Everything appeared healthy, and I was soon seated at a plain supper, which was the best thing I found in my hunt. He was an intelligent man, and very modestly informed me that I had not been on good hunting ground for squirrels. So, after a night of refreshing sleep, during which my teeth could have been as easily extracted as though I had been under laughing gas, I started, with instructions where to find squirrels. In an hour's walk I was rewarded with the sight of one. I took aim and fired. But there was some mistake; perhaps it was pulling or pushing with too much force, for after the smoke had cleared up I was standing in another direction, so much bewildered as not to remember which way to look for the tree or the object aimed at, and on feeling my shoulder found it somewhat painful from the force I had used in pressing out the shot. But having been a dentist for many years, I have from second nature, become a very philosophical person, and to avoid all future trouble on recharging my piece, put in a double quantity of powder, so as to prevent this hard work of pushing the loads out. I had not more than primed when another grey squirrel hove in sight. I gave chase, and when within a hundred and fifty yards of the game I leveled my gun and gave it just a slight shove, determined it should do the most of the work, for I had great confidence in this new gun. She did much more than I expected, for I had not more than collected my few remnants of mind and body when I found the most of me laying with my back in the mud and head on a log, so I continued perfectly cool, half immersed in cold water, till I could get up. Now this was a stern reality, as my pants would show. In this dilemma I could not have laughed without a little gas. I got fifteen squirrels, at a cost of ten dollars each, and now conclude there is no fun in laughing gas.

Words of Vital Interest.

Will the thousands who read columns of frivolous verbiage every day devote five minutes to the perusal of a few facts which concern them nearly? Our text is Health, and we will put our commentary into a nutshell. Weakness is indirectly the cause of all sickness, for if nature be strong enough to resist the morbid influences which produce illness, of course they are powerless. Seek strength, therefore, invigorate and regulate the system. When the quicksilver ranges from 80 to 90 degrees in the shade, the most athletic are enfeebled and the weak are prostrated. It is at such a time that such an invigorator as HOSTETTER'S STOMACH BITTERS is urgently needed. What are the effects of this rare Vegetable Tonic? Would that all who have known its benefits could condense their experience into this paragraph. They would tell the healthy, to protect their health they must use this great safeguard against the debilitating influences. They would exhort the weak to discard all unmedicated and impurestimiants and cling to this wholesome and unfailing tonic and alterative as the shipwrecked mariner would cling to a raft in a stormy sea. They would, of dyspeptic pangs relieved, of appetite restored, of shattered nerves restrung, of headaches cured, of disordered functions regulated, of hypochondria dissipated, of miasmatic diseased baffled, of fever and ague cured, of liver complaints arrested, of heat, privation and toil defied, of hope reanimated, and cheerfulness restored. Such are the effects of HOSTETTER'S BITTERS.

It is an Exploded Idea

That consumption cannot be cured, for we have the evidence daily that persons in the last stage are being cured and restored to health and vigor by using the Rev. A. Wilson's Great Consumptive Remedy. Many persons have been cured by it. Call and procure, or it will be mailed to you, a pamphlet giving a full history of this remarkable medicine.

The Semi-Annual Sale

Of Barker & Co., 59 Market street, commences on Monday next, June 11th. This sale is always regarded by their friends as one of peculiar interest, as it is always the occasion of great bargains, as well as of the exhibition of an unusually great variety of choice Dry Goods.

This sale they intend shall eclipse all that have preceded it, and we advise our readers to improve the opportunity, and assure them that it will be a rare one for buying choice goods from a stock that has no rival in the West for variety and cheapness.

We Are Not

In favor of universal boasting (a system often employed by others) of the celebrity of this or that medicine, and we keep our praise until we have positive knowledge of the value or virtue of an article. It gives us pleasure, however, to recommend to our readers Dr. C. W. Roback's Stomach Bitters, Blood Purifier and Blood Pills. The Bitters, we know from experience, give tone to the stomach, aid digestion and reinvigorate the system, restoring shattered and broken down constitutions. There can be no better remedy for purifying the blood than the Purifier and Blood Pills.

Another Valuable Remedy.

Some six years since, Messrs. J. R. Nichols & Co., manufacturing chemists, of Boston, called attention to a new combination of Peruvian Bark with the Protoxide of Iron, which has proved a remedy of great service as a restorative and tonic. Recently the same house have been led to prepare an alterative, or a remedy designed to break up diseased action and improve the quality of the blood. This is a combination of Sarsaparilla, an extract of the root, and Iodide of Lime, a new remedy of high repute among physicians. The name of the combinations is Sarsaparilla with Iodide of Lime. This will be a welcome accession to the list of remedies of a high and reliable character, which are placed within the reach of the public. It is for sale by the druggists.

A Huge Turtle.

Yesterday we had the pleasure of looking at one of the largest turtles ever brought to this city. It will be served up to-day at the Fricker Dining Saloon, No. 71 Fifth street, next door to the Postoffice. Everybody fond of choice turtle steaks, and soup that would tickle the palate of a London Alderman, should call. This saloon is the most popular and best managed house of the character in Pittsburgh, and has a large share of patronage. All the seasonable delicacies of the season are served up in the best style so soon as they make their appearance in this market. Fresh vegetables are received every day from gardeners who raise them especially for the Fricker Saloon. A well-conducted bar, where mild beverages, such as ale, porter and mineral water, are disposed of, is attached to the Saloon. A number of polite and attentive waiters are constantly on hand to properly wait upon the guests. An extortionate scale of prices is not established there, but everything is sold at the most reasonable and cheapest of rates. For a good meal, at any hour of the day or night, give the Fricker Saloon a call.

Consumptives Read.

Consumption is a disease which has long been considered as one of those which defies the skill of man to cure, and consequently the poor consumptive patient is allowed to suffer on for days and nights, without even a hope of cure or relief. This mistaken notion has at length been dispelled, and it is now certain that consumption, when properly treated, is as curable as any other disease. This important announcement has been proven in very many instances, by a gentleman in this city, who has cured a great many cases of every form of lung disease, even after the lungs have been ulcerated and partly destroyed. The person to whom we allude is Dr. George H. Keyser, of 140 Wood street, where he has been located for the past eighteen years, and within the past year has had a private office at 120 Penn street. Dr. Keyser is the proprietor of the Pectoral Syrup bearing his name, and advertised in another part of this Gazette. There will be found certificates in his column advertisement of well known and respectable citizens who have been cured by this medicine alone. Indeed, if persons afflicted with a common cough or cold were to resort to this remedy at the outset of the disease, there would be very few of those cases that would end in pulmonary consumption. How often have we heard in large congregations of people, nearly one-half of them coughing themselves into an incurable disease, when we know that a seventy-five cent bottle of Dr. Keyser's Pectoral Syrup would have arrested the disease in an incredible short space of time.

Central High School.

MESSRS. EDITORS:—As there seems to be a good deal of interest taken in educational matters at present, allow one to make a few inquiries in regard to the Central High School. Why is it that after establishing the High School and keeping it up so long a time at such a great expense, amounting to some eight thousand dollars annually, it proves to be such an utter failure? Why is it that an institution furnished with a good Cabinet Library and apparatus, and a full corps of permanent Professors and Teachers—an institution which is open to all free of expense, and claims all the Public schools about the city as its feeders—averages only about eighty pupils a year, while there are private schools in the city charging high prices for tuition, and resting entirely on their own merits for their support, averaging from one hundred to four hundred pupils annually? Must there not be something radically wrong in its management? Is it not because its methods of instruction are so dry, lifeless and mechanical? If the High School is to be perpetuated, would it not be better to offer such salaries as would secure the services of living, thorough and successful educators, who could at once command an attendance of three hundred or four hundred pupils? And, finally, would it not be better to raise the salary of the Secretary of the Central Board, and then forbid his acting as agent for any series of text books, and thus preclude the necessity of his insulting all the lady teachers about the city who do not officially endorse such series of books.

President Roberts Has an Interview with the U. S. District Attorney—He Refuses to Give the Rich Parole—Colloquy on the Question of Bail.

NEW YORK, June 8.—President Roberts had an interview with Acting United States District Attorney Allen this afternoon and offered to give bail in his own recognizance to the amount of twenty thousand dollars. On being questioned by the District Attorney, he refused to do so, however, from any further attempt to attain the object had in view in endeavoring to accomplish. The District Attorney informed him that he would not object to his remaining in his own custody, provided he would give his parole not to attempt any further violations of the Neutrality act. Mr. Roberts replied that he would not promise anything of the kind, but that, on the other hand, he would continue to do all in his power to consummate his object as soon as the opportunity presented itself.

Shortly after this conversation ex-Recorder Smith, on the part of President Roberts, asked that he be admitted to bail in his own recognizance for the sum of twenty thousand dollars, at the same time presenting the bond duly signed, when the following conversation ensued:

District Attorney—I object to the bond or any bail, for, if released, he will repeat the violation of law.

Commissioner—That assertion will not prevent his admission to bail.

District Attorney—I think it ought to prevent his being admitted to bail.

Ex-Recorder Smith—I suppose you do not object to the sufficiency of the security.

District Attorney—No; not to its sufficiency, but I cannot consent to any bond, when he has threatened to reiterate the acts with which he is charged. I must still insist that application. I have telegraphed to Washington, and unless ordered to the contrary, I shall maintain my position.

The Commissioner decided not to take his personal bond.

After consultation Mr. Roberts still persisted in refusing to allow any one to become his security, and it is more than probable he will lodge in Eldridge street jail to-night.

Retrocession Act Unconstitutional—Threatened Raid by Ex-rebel Soldiers on a Government Farm in Maryland—Bad State of Affairs Generally.

NEW YORK June 8.—Washington special to the morning papers says: The recent Supreme Court decided to-day that the act of Congress retroceding Alexandria county to Virginia, from the district, was unconstitutional.

Reports from Freedmen's Commissioner's in Maryland say the ex-rebel soldiers are drilling in the lower counties of that State, and threaten a raid on the government farm in that locality. Measures have been adopted to stop the movement. Reports from other sections south represent a very bad state of affairs, especially are outrages to have been made upon the Freedmen's Bureau at the north.

NEW YORK, June 8.—Midnight.—Mrs. Reid, who washed the clothes of E. A. Frazier, whose death has already been announced, was also seized with cholera on Wednesday afternoon and expired at midnight. Last night a Grey Eyed Captain, of the 14th Regiment, was attacked with premonitory symptoms of the scourge, but being promptly treated was considered out of danger this evening.

The first day of the Fashion Course this afternoon, between Lady Thorn and George Wilkes, mile heats, best three in five, for $1,000, was won by the latter in three straight heats. Time, 2:25, 2:25, and 2:23.

The match against time, seven hundred and fifty dollars against five hundred dollars, that Mainbrino Pilot could not trot a mile in 2:30, was done in 2:22½.

Reports From Washington—President Opposed to all Constitutional Amendments—Damaging Developements Concerning Provost Marshal General Fry—Jeff Davis to be Released on Bail.

NEW YORK, June 8.—Specials from Washington to the evening papers say the National Intelligencer has an editorial saying that President Johnson is opposed to all constitutional amendments and to all conditions precedent to the admission of loyal representatives from the Southern States.

The investigation of the Provost Marshal's office is very damaging to Gen. Fry.

It is understood that Jeff. Davis will be released on bail.

Train on Reading Railroad Precipitated Over an Embankment.

PHILADELPHIA, June 8.—The mail train from Pottsville, due here at 7 o'clock yesterday evening, ran off the track at Valley Forge, caused by a switch being left open. The whole train went down an embankment twelve feet high. The fireman of the train was instantly killed; Dorman, the baggage master, was frightfully mangled, and died shortly after. A young girl had both her legs broken. No one else was injured except by bruises. This is the first fatal accident on the Reading Railroad for twelve years.

Report of the Reconstruction Committee.

WASHINGTON, June 8.—The report of the Reconstruction Committee is lengthy, and contains a review of the grounds upon which the original Report was based; a brief summary of the objections brought forward, and gives reasons why the Southern States should not complain at being temporarily unrepresented. It proceeds to specify some of the safe-guards necessary to perfect restoration, viz: Whenever there shall be an equitable basis of representation, fixed a stigma on treason, and protection of loyal people against rebellion claims, then they may be re-admitted to their abandoned rights and privileges.

Ship Builders' Strike—The Employers Stand Firm.

NEW YORK, June 8.—The ship owners and builders, in a meeting to-day, resolved to stand firm against the strike of the caulkers and shipwrights, and advertise for workmen.

The Situation at the Front.

ST. ALBANS, (VT.,) June 8.—General Sweeny and Colonel Meehon were arraigned before a civil tribunal this forenoon. The proceedings are private, no reporters being admitted.

NEW YORK, June 8.—All recruiting for Fenians in this city is suspended to-day.

President Roberts appeared at the Fenian headquarters to-day, but does no business. An officer is attendance near him. No further arrests have been made.

ST. LOUIS, June 8.—Several other prominent Fenians were arrested last evening and to-day, including Jas. McGrath, State Centre, O'Mahony wing, P. J. Harman, Treasurer, Roberts wing, Dr. P. S. O'Reilly, Colonel of St. Louis, W. C. Gault, A. Doyle, M. S. O'Connor, Gen. Curley, formerly Adjutant General, Dr. John Finn, Samuel Erskine, all of whom were admitted to bail. Dan. O'Madigan, State Centre of the Roberts wing, Judge Daily, Messrs. Conlan and O'Connor, who refused to give bail, yesterday entered into bonds to-day.

The examination of Mrs. Hagan was continued before the United States District Court to-day.

CONCORD, N. H., June 8.—It is officially announced here from the War Department that our State militia is likely to be summoned into service for the protection and vindication of the neutrality laws in connection with the operations of the Fenians.

PORTLAND, ME., June 8.—It is stated that the Vermont Central Railroad have applied to the Grand Trunk Railway for the transportation of Fenians, owing to the universal skedaddle this morning they used up all their cars.

NEW YORK, C. W., June 8.—A special to the Tribune from OTTAWA, C. W., to-day, says: There are 20,000 men, including the regulars, under arms, and the government is still arming. The action of the United States authorities gives great satisfaction.

BUFFALO, June 8th.—A copy of the following order has this afternoon been furnished the telegraph company in this city, relating to cypher messages.

HEADQUARTERS DISTRICT OF ONTARIO,
BUFFALO, June 8th, 1866.

General Orders No. 2.—In compliance with instructions from Major General Meade, in virtue of the power vested in him by the President of the United States, the transportation over railroads, by water or other modes of conveyance of any persons or materials of war designed or supposed to be designed to violate the neutrality laws, is forbidden. The transmission over the telegraph wires of messages in cypher or other words than plain English letters relating to Fenian movements, is also forbidden. All persons are warned that any evasion or disregard of this order will be treated as aiding and abetting the violators of the law. Commanding officers of the United States troops within the limits of this military district will cause this order to be made public and it is made their duty to see that it is promptly and vigorously enforced.

As many as eight hundred and fifty Fenians arrived in town to-day, but though they did not apparently intend to stop here, the above order of General Barry will prevent their going eastward, as they purposed. There is some whispering of trouble again in this neighborhood.

ROCHESTER, (N. Y.,) June 8.—A supposed attempt to seize the Canadian steamers Corbutian and Rochester at Charlotte, last evening, was frustrated. General Barry, on being telegraphed to for orders, replied that he had no available troops to send here, and that the authorities would have to depend on what aid could be obtained from the militia and people. General Barry's force has been sent to Ogdensburg.

NEW YORK, June 8.—There is no truth in the report that President Roberts has been released on his own recognizance. He is still in the custody of an United States Deputy Marshal. Vice President Gibbons and Col. Kerrigan would be arrested at once if any one could be found from whom bail could be taken. United States Marshal Murray, having good reason to believe that a plan had been concocted to force the building in which he has his office, remained there all night.

ST. ALBANS, VT., June 8.—General Sweeny and Colonel Meehan were arraigned to-day before United States Commissioner Hoyt, and waiving examination were held to bail, Sweeny in twenty thousand dollars and Meehan in five thousand dollars. They remain in custody until bail is given.

No late news of interest has been received from the front up to noon to-day.

BOSTON, June 8.—A St. Albans special to the Journal says: There were no arrivals of Fenians this morning, but numerous departures of the brotherhood for their homes. Colonel Hugh Donnelly's company of sixty-five have left for Springfield, and between seventy-five and one hundred, who have straggled in from the front and been loitering around town, have left on the train for Boston. They were provided with transportation by the United States Government, and were very grateful for it. They say that as soon as it becomes known at the front that the Government is furnishing them with transportation homeward, that the Fenian army will be among the things that were. A movement made on the part of the British Government will probably hasten the dispersion of the Fenian invaders.

Last evening there were eight-thirty-two loads of British regulars, numbering some two thousand five hundred, landed at Farnum, about fourteen miles from St. Johns on the Montreal road, and at point nearly opposite the invaders.

MALONE, N. Y., June 8.—The situation remains about the same here, at the seat of war, as at last report. In addition to the arrest of General Murphy and General Heffernan, as announced yesterday, Col. Reny, Capt. Gilsass, Capt. Easton and all the principal officers of the army of the Irish Republic in this locality were already arrested and are now here under guard.

The Herald special from Collingwood and Kingston, C. W., reports alarms at both places. There is great excitement among the inhabitants. No enemy in sight.

A special to the New York Tribune from Essex Junction, Vermont, June 8, says that firing has been distinctly heard on this side of the line, apparently in the direction of Pigeon Hills. Thomas Carpenter's hotel at Pigeon Hill, just across the line, was torn down by the Fenians yesterday, in revenge, it is supposed for harboring defiant speeches by Mr. Carpenter. The Fenians are leaving in squads for home, transportation being furnished by Maj. Gibson in accordance with orders from Washington.

Gen Sweeney's bail was fixed this morning at thirty thousand dollars.

Nine tons of Fenian ammunition were seized in Burlington this morning en route to St. Albans.

Continued excitement prevailed in Fenian circles all day. Roberts refused bail this morning. Gen. Sweeny was arraigned again and by his friends, and was at last consigned to Ludlow street jail. Crowds of Irish are about the jail, denouncing President Johnson and Secretary Seward, but no attempts were made to rescue Roberts. The hotel proprietors refused to receive Roberts in their houses while under arrest, for fear of hostile demonstrations.

"Brothers: Remember that we have undertaken a great and holy work, and we must not falter now. Public sentiment is with us, humanity justifies us, and Irish freedom calls us and Irish brothers in the old land. Now, in the hour of their sore need, press forward with your means—it is the great want. Let all your proceedings show how you respect the laws, and let political jugglers take the responsibility of prostrating the pride of a great nation at the feet of despotism. If some of your leaders are relieved there are others to take their places, and the government can cease only through your own want of determination."

Col. Perrigan is still actively engaged at Tammany Hall in raising his brigade. He has three thousand men and only waits for money for transportation.

CANADIAN PARLIAMENT OPENED.

Synopsis of the Governor's Speech.

FENIAN MOVEMENT ADVERTED TO.

OTTAWA, C. W., June 8th.—Parliament opened to-day. The following is a synopsis of the Governor's speech:—After alluding to the new capital buildings in an appropriate manner, he speaks of the termination of the reciprocity treaty and says papers will be laid before the House that it is imperative to find markets for the products of the country, that a deputation representing British North America, sent during the past winter to the West Indies, Brazil, &c., to ascertain the best means of extending commercial relations, and report to be made in due time.

Alluding to the Fenian movement he says: The threats and preparations for an attack on Canada constantly, openly made by a body of organized troops in the United States of America, known as Fenians, compelled me since last parliament, by advice of my minister, to call out for active service a large portion of the militia force of the province. The spirit displayed by the people in responding to the proclamation, has received the merited approval of her Majesty's government. The events which have occurred in the last few days, afford continued proof of the necessity for the precautionary measures adopted. The province has been invaded by a lawless band of marauders, but I congratulate the country that they were promptly confronted and within twenty-four hours compelled to make a precipitate retreat. I deplore the loss of life and sufferings entailed upon the gallant body of Canada volunteers in the engagement which took place, repelling so promptly the invaders who attacked the country, and I feel assured you will not omit to alleviate, as far as may be in your power, the miseries so wantonly inflicted on many families, but while I grieve the individual loss, I congratulate the country that the danger has shown Canada to possess in the volunteers a force ever ready to spend their lives in defence of the Queen and their country. The entire people have been thoroughly aroused by the recent occurrences, and it must now be apparent to all that the whole resources of the country, both men and means, will at any moment be cheerfully given for repelling any invasion of their homes. In the measures of defence which I have been called upon to take, I have received unremitting support by the Lieutenant General commanding and Admiral Hope. It is also a source of unfeigned pleasure to acknowledge the gallant devotion displayed by the officers and men in her majesty's military and naval forces in Canada. I am happy to be enabled to state that the President of the United States has issued a proclamation declaring that the aggressions infractions of the laws of that country have been, and are being, committed by evil disposed persons within the territory and jurisdiction of the United States against her British possessions, and has issued orders requiring all officers of his government to exert every effort for their suppression. I trust the course thus adopted will, ere long, present to the world the spectacle of a nation at peace with Great Britian. The maintainance of the force necessitated by the late invasion has also compelled to call out, has involved the expenditure of a large amount not provided for in the last session. Accounts of this expenditure will be laid before the House, and I feel confident you will immediately pass a bill indemnifying the Government for the outlay thus incurred, under the provisions of the Audit Act. The recent occurrences show the necessity of extending to Lower Canada the act to protect the inhabitants of Upper Canada in this province against lawless aggressions from the subjects of a foreign country at peace with Her Majesty. It has also been necessary, for the preservation of law and order, to adopt a course similar to that taken at the present session of the imperial Parliament, for the temporary suspension of the habeas corpus act. I invite your immediate attention to the necessary measure.

I congratulate you upon the satisfactory results of the commerce of the country during the past year. The revenue has been largely in excess of the estimates as to enable the government, without inconvenience, to provide for the heavy unexpected charges entailed on the country by the late invasion, while the great question of the union of the Provinces of British North America has assumed, is now such a position as to justify the expectation that the measure will be shortly carried into effect. I therefore hope and believe it will be practicable during the present session to adopt such measures as may be necessary for completing the details of the scheme. As regards Canada, I venture to express the confident expectation that the new Parliament held within these walls will not be confined to the Assembly.

CONGRESSIONAL PROCEEDINGS.

JOINT RESOLUTION PASSED AMENDED.

The Vote Thirty-three to Eleven.

WASHINGTON, June 8, 1866.

SENATE.

The Senate, on assembling, postponed all other other business and took up the Reconstruction resolution at ten minutes past twelve o'clock, the object being to come to a vote upon it to-day.

Mr. Johnson, of Maryland, proceeded to address the Senate against the proposition.

Mr. Anthony introduced a bill to amend the act for the better organization of the pay department of the army, which was passed.

A memorial asking for Congressional aid in repairing the levees along the Mississippi, was referred to a select Committee of Five.

Mr. Foscenden reported a bill to supply the deficiency in the contingent fund of the House, which was passed.

The Reconstruction resolutions were taken up, the pending questions being upon the following substitute for the second section offered by Mr. Williams: Representatives shall be apportioned among the several States according to their respective numbers, counting the whole number of persons, excluding Indians not taxed, but wherever the right to vote at any election for electors for President and Vice President, or for United States Representatives in Congress, executive and judicial officers, or the members thereof, is denied to any of the male inhabitants of such State being twenty-one years of age, and citizens of the United States or in any way abridged, except for participation in rebellion or other crime, the basis of representation therein shall be reduced in the proportion which the number of such male citizens shall bear to the whole number of male citizens twenty-one years of age in such State.

Sec. 3. No person shall be a Senator or Representative in Congress, or Elector of President or Vice President, or hold any office, civil or military, under the United States, or under any State, who, having previously taken an oath as a member of Congress, or as an officer of the United States, or as a member of any State legislature, or as an executive or judicial officer of any State, to support the Constitution of the United States, who shall have engaged in insurrection or rebellion against the same, or given aid or comfort to the enemies thereof, but Congress may by a vote of two-thirds of each house, remove such disability.

Sec. 4. The validity of the public debt of the United States, authorized by law, including debts incurred for payment of pensions and bounties for services in suppressing insurrection or rebellion shall not be questioned, but neither the United States nor any State shall assume or pay any debt or obligation, incurred in aid of insurrection or rebellion against the United States, or any claim for loss or emancipation of any slave; but all such debts, obligations and claims shall be held illegal and void.

The Senate, at 5:30 P. M., adjourned to meet on Monday next.

HOUSE.

Mr. Hale moved that the Military Committee inquire into the expediency of providing by law for the erection of a monument to Lieutenant General Scott, at West Point. Agreed to.

Mr. Davis moved that the Library Committee inquire into the expediency of purchasing the equestrian portrait of Lieutenant General Scott now in the Capitol. Agreed to.

Mr. Hubbard moved that the Banking Committee inquire into the expediency of providing by law for the redemption of worn and defaced fractional currency, so as to obviate the necessity of sending them to each particular bank issuing them. Agreed to.

The resolution to adjourn Congress on the 28th of June was taken up, the question being upon the reconsideration of the vote adopting it. The vote was reconsidered by 52 to 42, and the resolution was referred to the Committee on Ways and Means.

The Senate bill for the relief of Mrs. Anne Gasten was passed.

The Senate bill granting the right of way to the Humboldt Canal Company through the public land in Nevada, was passed.

The Senate amendments to the bill to amend the postal laws were agreed to and the bill passed by both Houses.

Mr. Blaine reported a joint resolution providing that enlisted soldiers detailed for duty as mail guards shall not be deprived of the right to bounty, which was passed.

On motion of Mr. Cullum the Committee on Pensions was directed to inquire into the expediency of amending the Pension act so as to allow the issuance of pensions to date from the discharge of the soldier or sailor, where the application has been made within two years of the discharge.

The bill to establish an Educational Department in Washington was taken up.

Mr. Thayer's bill to amend the Reconstruction Committee was presented and ordered to be printed.

The Conference Committee on the fortification bill recommended an agreement to the appropriation of fifty thousand dollars for Fort Popham, on the Kennebec river, Maine. The amendment was concurred in.

Among the private bills introduced was one for the relief of Mrs. Syphat, descendant of a slave of Washington, whose land had been confiscated while the owner was a rebel.

Mr. Thayer reported back the Senate bill to grant lands in California to Joseph E. Domingues, and also the bills for relief of Josephine Elizabeth Woodward, Captain James Starkey and Colonel Henry C. D. Allan.

On motion of Mr. Morrill, it was ordered that the proceedings to-morrow be confined to debate, as if in Committee of the Whole, on the President's Annual Message.

The reconsideration of the vote rejecting the bill to establish a Department of Education was moved.

Adjourned.

THE DIFFERENCE.

When the Southern oligarchy plunged eleven States of the Union into rebellion against the national authority, Great Britain made indecent haste to concede belligerent rights to the insurgents. She did not wait to see what proportions the outbreak would assume, nor what resources for its suppression would be commanded by the government. Every conceivable encouragement was given the rebels, and no concealment was attempted of the disposition to aid in breaking up the republic. Arms, ammunition, clothing, ships of war, with full crews of seamen, money, and moral support, were furnished from England, with the connivance of Her Majesty's government. In the Canadas the rebels found not only an asylum—which they had a right to ask—but impunity to conspire; to fit out expeditions for communicating loathsome infections; for setting cities on fire; for plundering banks; for assassinations, and for almost all other crimes the hearts of bad men could conceive. These outrages upon international law and upon common humanity, were held by the provincial authorities and by the bulk of the people, to be legitimate acts of war. Measures of redress were consequently denied, and men who ought to have been dealt with as vulgar criminals, were petted and applauded as eminent patriots. Appeals to the Courts, instead of bringing relief, served to diclose how deep was the hatred of the government and people to the Union and its loyal inhabitants. Raids across the border, inspired by a semi-barbarism, the natural product of slavery, were winked at and exulted over as feats of valor, the offspring of a chivalrous spirit.

For ten days past the Canadians have, in some degree, had "the ingredients of the poisonous chalice commended to their own lips." Fenian raids have burst in upon them, disturbing their quiet, exciting their fears, calling their young men to arms, and stretching some of them on bloody biers. A wail comes up from them against the government of the United States for not interposing to break up the Fenian conspiracy even before an act had been committed in violation of neutrality laws.

Now, it must be confessed that the Fenian movement is not strictly analagous to the Confederate enterprise at the South. There is no rebellion in Canada—there was a formidable rebellion in the Southern States. There is no rebellion in Ireland; though there are indications of the existence of a conspiracy for rebellion.

Under this view of the case the President has judged proper to issue his Proclamation for the enforcement of neutrality, and has caused a number of the Fenian leaders to be arrested for palpable violation of our laws. The Fenians are wrathful at this interposition to prevent their operations, and mutter of breach of agreement. Even citizens, ordinarily sedate, seem inclined to follow the dictates of retaliation, rather than the inculcations of prudence and sound doctrine.

No ambiguity covers the American exigesis of neutral rights. Before the Fenians can reasonably claim recognition they must establish themselves as a power de facto. So long as their attitude is that of simple raiders upon the territory of an adjoining nation with which this country is at peace, it is absurd for them to claim or expect the concession of belligerent rights. They are not engaged in a rebellion, but a capture. Indeed, most of the Fenians are American citizens, as fully amenable to our laws as though born under our jurisdiction. Hence, they are incapable of an act of rebellion against Great Britain. They must first, by due process, divest themselves of citizenship in this country, and become British subjects, before they can set up properly the claim to be rebels against British domination. True, Great Britain still affirms the old dogma, "once a citizen, always a citizen." It is possible she may fall into the folly of dealing with captured Fenians on this principle. But the United States does not accept that doctrine. She cannot accept it without repudiating the obligation to maintain the rights of naturalized citizens in as broad a sense as though they were "to the manor born." The President must hold these Fenians, or, at least, so many of them as have been naturalized, to be American citizens. Some of them, as Mr. KILLIAN, are native Americans. By British law, having been born of parents who were British subjects, they can claim British citizenship for themselves. But asserting it by force of arms is a method the courts cannot be expected to recognize as legitimate.

We do not expect the British government and people duly to appreciate the action of the United States in this behalf; much less to repudiate their mischievous doctrines on international comity and belligerent rights. They are not to be converted by the moderation of other nations. It is convenient for them to have the advantages of their own doctrine when we are in trouble, and of our doctrine when they are in difficulty. No sense of delicacy or honor will restrain them from reaping double profits in this way. It is barely possible, however, the Fenian movement will assume such a shape as to justify the concession of belligerent rights to the Irish Republic. In that event, a case of sudden national conversion will transpire, and the American doctrine be thenceforth recognized as the rule for all civilized nations. This is a point of attainment which rises above all temporary considerations of interest or revenge. The progress of political society is involved in it. If it shall not be reached now, the consummation cannot be long delayed.

LAST week many of the democratic journals in this State boasted greatly that the soldiers were for Mr. Clymer. Since the proceedings of the Soldiers' Convention in this city were published, this boasting has died out. Natural, wasn't it?

GENERAL LUTHERAN SYNOD.

The General Synod of the English Lutheran Church of the United States, convened at Fort Wayne, Indiana, May 19th. One hundred and eighty-seven delegates were present, besides from fifty to seventy-five visitors. Twenty-two Synods were represented. The Synod was opened by a sermon from Rev. Dr. Sprecher, President of Wittenberg College, Ohio. All the delegates present were enrolled, except from two Synods—the Pennsylvania and the Franckean, of New York—because the delegates of those Synods had withdrawn from the General Synod, two years ago, under protest. Rev. Dr. J. A. Brown was elected President. Immediately after the organization, a committee of seven was appointed to consider certain questions relating to the Pennsylvania Synod. Early in the second day, the committee reported a lengthy preamble, giving a history of the facts, with several resolutions appended. The preamble was adopted, after nearly the entire session was consumed. The resolutions were then taken up, and discussed during the different sessions for six days, and had at last an unfortunate issue. For years a controversy has been going on in the Church relating to forms and rituals; one party represented by the Lutheran and Missionary, published at Philadelphia; and the other by the Lutheran Observer; published in Baltimore. We need not here refer to particulars. Suffice it to say the controversy was narrowed down to the question whether the Pennsylvania Synod should be, or should not be, recognized as in practical relation with the General Synod; the Pennsylvania Synod representing the liturgical party; and the men controling the General Synod, representing the anti-liturgical party. The resolutions adopted in the final action, in brief, were: That the conditions annexed by the Pennsylvania Synod were contrary to the constitution of the General Synod; that whatever motives induced the General Synod to receive the Pennsylvania delegates in 1853, with this condition, renders it desirable that said conditions be rescinded by the Synod of Pennsylvania, and a willingness to receive the delegates of the Synod of Pennsylvania. During the discussion of these resolutions, fears were entertained by some that the exclusion of the Pennsylvania Synod would induce a schism in the Church. It was thought, however, that the passage of these resolutions would avert such a calamity. But the delegates of the Pennsylvania Synod replied to the action of the General Synod, signed by Drs. C. P. Krauth and Seiss and others. The paper closed, asking the General Synod to acknowledge their constitutional right to be represented before the election of officers. This the General Synod refused to do, by a vote of 76 ayes to 32 nays. The delegates of the Pennsylvania Synod then withdrew in a body.

By the fourth day, premising that the passage of the resolutions relative to the Pennsylvania Synod had settled that vexed question, the Synod entered upon its legitimate business. The forenoon was spent in reading various reports, considering an able paper on the State of the country, which we have already published. The afternoon session was given to the Foreign Missionary Society. Receipts to the General Fund, $10,346.96; Disbursements, $15,743.59. African Fund—Receipts, $6,323.58; Disbursements, $5,787.51. Fifth day—The Pennsylvania Synod matter came up again, and final action taken on the sixth day as stated. The afternoon and evening was given to the Home Missionary Society and the Church Extension Society. Receipts for Home Missions during the last two years, $3,305.55. The field mainly occupied for the most part are the States of Missouri, Iowa and Minnesota. From the reports of the Church Extension Society, we learn quite a number of churches have been assisted. The total assets of the Society are $12,200.20. After the final vote on the sixth day, in the matter of the Pennsylvania Synod, the remainder of that day and the seventh was devoted to routine business, after which the Synod adjourned to meet in Harrisburg, Pennsylvania, the third Thursday of May, 1868.

REFORMED PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH.

The annual Synod of this Church (we believe the Covenenter Branch of that body,) met at Rochester, N. Y., May 23d, and continued in session seven days. The Moderator was Rev. J. R. Dodds, Missionary to Syria, at present on a visit to this country. From the meagre details in our possession, we make the following summary: The question of the appointment of days of fasting and thanksgiving was decided that such occasions should be fixed by a commission at such times as they deemed suitable. The propriety of organizing a Presbytery in Syria was considered, and also congregations in Washington and Natchez. The sum of $17,000 was recommended to be added to the Endowment Fund of the Seminary. Rev. Mr. Gaston was present and represented the Synod of the Dutch Reformed Church, to which the Moderator and Rev. D. Scott replied. Delegates were appointed to represent the body at the Synod of the Dutch Reformed Church, now in session in New York. Rev. Dr. Sproull, of Allegheny City, was appointed to represent the body at the United Presbyterian Assembly, now in session in Allegheny. Finance Committee reported the amounts necessary for the various schemes of the Church. Committee on the subject of Marriage reported. The main resolution insisted that no ministers should solemnize marriage unless they had satisfactory evidence that no obstacles are in the way, and that in all cases due publicity should be given of all marriages before their solemnization. Stringent action was taken on the subject of Temperance. First resolution is a fair specimen of the four adopted: That this Synod hereby reiterates its direct and emphatic testimony against the sin of selling and using intoxicating drinks as a beverage.

REFORMED DUTCH CHURCH SYNOD.

The sixtieth annual meeting of the General Synod of the Reformed Protestant Dutch Church in the United States of North America, convened in New York Wednesday, 6th inst., and was opened with prayer by Rev. Anson Dubois, D. D. After perfecting the roll, the following persons were chosen officers: President, Rev. H. D. Ganse; Adsessor, Rev. Paul D. Van Cleef, D. D.; Clerks, Revs. George H. Peeke and J. L. Pearse. The body having just entered upon its session, we are without any particulars, except the following: From the report of the Board of Education we learn that it has aided fifty-three beneficiaries. Thirteen parochial schools have been established. Receipts about $8,500. The receipts of the Foreign Board of Missions for 1865–'66, $55,783.75; Report of Domestic Missions for 1866, shows the entire receipts to be $26,652.23; expenditures, $26,977.95. Report of Board of Publication as follows: From Depository, $18,751.66; from eighty-three Churches, $1,613.12; from individuals, $439.60; from Sunday Schools, $28.00; for Freedmen, $100.00. Total, $20,927.38.

The trip is considered a success. It is said that there is neither smoke nor cinders, but all is consumed in the grate.

—A young man named Maltby was struck by lightning, a few days since, in Sherman, Connecticut. The lightning came down through the roof, struck him on one shoulder, and passed down his side, tearing his boot and foot to pieces, and making a small hole in the floor. One side of his body, where the lightning passed, is terribly lacerated and burned. He is suffering much, but hopes are entertained of his recovery.

—Reconstruction was discussed in the North Carolina State Convention on Saturday, the question being the appointment of a committee to visit Washington and find out what further steps are necessary to insure the State's restoration. Several members avowed they would never ask any favors of that kind from the Stevens and Sumner party, but Mr. Dick made a speech counseling loyalty and advising the convention to stand by the President in his efforts to restore the State.

—At Montgomery, Alabama, there was a general turn-out of the drays of the city in attendance upon the funeral of a drayman. The hearse containing the corpse was followed by a number of drays, and as the procession passed on towards the burial ground, others took their place in line, until it extended some hundreds of yards. The utmost order and decorum was observed, and, after paying the last rites to the deceased, the drays dispersed to compete busily and noisily with each other once more in their usual busy, noisy manner.

A SHREWD FEMALE SPECULATOR.—The Amador (Cal.) Ledger tells the subjoined: "A short time ago a widow lady, residing in a village not one thousand miles from here, put her house up at a raffle, and very soon disposed of the tickets—all feeling disposed to assist her. The evening arrived for the raffle to come off, and the house was won by a gentleman who thought himself fortunate in obtaining a homestead so cheap. The next day he applied for possession and a title to the property. What was his surprise when he was coolly informed that it was unnecessary to give any written title to the house—that there it was, and to take it, and the sooner the better, as she was anxious to build another on the spot where it stood. The winner discovered that he had drawn an elephant—he had a house, but no lot."

EVIDENCES OF RECONSTRUCTION.—The Loyal Georgian, a newspaper published in Augusta, Ga., in its issue of the 25th, says that the colored school children in Americus, in that State, were denied the right of carrying the United States flag in a procession at a May party. The widow lady (white and a resident) who teaches the school was informed, a few days before the time set for the party, by several citizens, that, if she attempted to march her pupils through the town, or to carry the United States flag, she and they would be shot! She appealed to the Mayor for protection, who gave it, so far as the procession was concerned, but she was not allowed to carry the flag, the symbol of her country's glory and power!

United Presbyterian General Assembly.

EIGHTH DAY.

The Assembly met at the usual hour yesterday morning, Dr. Kerr in the chair, and was opened with prayer by Rev. R. B. Ewing.

On motion the calling of the roll and the reading of the minutes were dispensed with.

The Assembly took up the report of the Curriculum of Study in the Theological Seminaries, which was under consideration at the adjournment of the session last evening.

After some discussion the report was recommitted to the Committee with instructions to report upon the whole subject at the next Assembly.

The following resolutions offered by Rev. B. Waddell, were adopted.

Resolved, That the Synods under the care of this Assembly be and are hereby enjoined to submit to the next Assembly for inspection a record of their proceedings.

Resolved, That the Synods be requested to report to the next Assembly whether or not they are in favor of uniting the Theological Seminaries of our church into one or two, and, if in favor, then report the conditions of such consolidation.

The following resolution, offered by Rev. S. M. Coon and Samuel Mullen, was adopted.

WHEREAS, There is evidence to believe that the practice of reading instead of preaching the gospel to some extent prevalent in the U. P. Church of N. A., therefore,

Resolved, That this Assembly expresses its decided disapprobation of this practice.

The Committee on Bills and Overtures presented a report in regard to the memorial from the Presbytery of Philadelphia on instrumental music, recommending that the petition of the memorialists be granted. Adopted.

Assembly then took up the report of the Committee on the report of the Board of Missions to the freedmen.

Rev. Mr. Lackey was heard at length on the report referring to him.

On motion the ninth resolution, commending Rev. Mr. Lackey, for his services among the freedmen's of Davis' Bend while acting as a Government Superintendent, was amended by authorizing the payment of $300 to Mr. Lackey for his services. The tenth resolution was stricken out. The report as amended was then adopted.

Rev. M. Baldridge read a communication from the Superintendent of a colored school in Leavenworth, Kansas, asking to be taken under the care of the U. P. Church. The communication was received.

Rev. R. B. Ewing offered a resolution authorizing the appointment of a committee to arrange the Twenty-Seventh Version of Psalms already adopted, and incorporate with them the amendments reported, and that the same be published in pamphlet form as soon as possible.

Rev. Dr. Brown, from a special committee appointed to nominate a new committee, to whom all the memorials were referred, reported a report favoring the publication of a paper for the purposes named above, which was also laid on the table.

A resolution was offered to the effect that superannuated or disabled Home Missionaries receive a half any during the time of their disability. Carried by a standing vote, with a majority of one.

The report of the Committee in the case of Rev. Gaily, who had appealed from the decision of the Mansfield Presbytery, and also from the first synod of the West to this Assembly, was received and adopted.

The report recommended that all the papers in the case of Rev. R. Gaily be returned to him, believing the decision of the first Synod of the West to be final and without appeal.

The report of the Committee on the Jewish Mission in New York was read. It consisted of a series of resolutions recommending that $1,000 be appropriated from the fund of the Board of Missions to the sustainance of a Missionary among the Jews of New York, and recommending that Rev. A. C. Fiske be assigned to that field. That the Mission to be under the jurisdiction of the Home Mission Board; and that $150 be appropriated for the purchase of books, tracts, &c., for distribution among the Jews, and that the Executive Committee be authorized to present the balance of the eight hundred dollars to Mr. Tris, which had been appropriated to him by the last General Assembly.

On motion, the report was adopted as read.

The Committee on the Narrative of the State of Religion reported that during the ecclesiastical year fourteen licenses had been granted; that twenty-five ordinations had taken place; forty-one installations, thirty-two resignations, twenty-seven additions of theology had been received; ten new organizations effected; seven ministers received from other churches, and one dismissed. Revs. William Taggart, Peter Menfert, John L. Craig, James Williamson, Isaac Collins, Charles Thompson, Peter Gordon and Thomas M. Baird were reported as having ceased their labors, having gone to reign in the Kingdom of the Master.

The report of the Board on Church Extension was read, with resolution requiring each Presbytery to forward their proportionment of the fund by the first of January, and in case of their failure to do so that an agent or agents be sent to collect the deficiency within the bounds of the Presbyteries in arrears. Also, that the sum of $15,000 be raised during the coming year. Dr. Pressly, Rev. J. B. Reid, Thomas E. Wakeham, whose term of service in the Board expired, be re-elected.

The report was accepted and the resolutions were then adopted.

A resolution was adopted referring the amendments suggested by the various Presbyteries to the Book of Discipline to a special committee to be appointed by the Moderator.

The Committee to whom was referred the subject of obtaining statistics in reference to the part taken in the suppression of the rebellion by members of this Church submitted a report, which was laid on the table.

Prayer was offered by Rev. J. B. Clark, after which the Assembly adjourned.

Court of Common Pleas.

Hon. Edwin H. Stowe presiding.

FRIDAY, June 8.—The following business was transacted:

John McClung vs. Allegheny county. The defendant, ex-Coroner, sought to recover his fees for holding the inquest on the bodies of the victims of the explosion at the Allegheny Arsenal, at Lawrenceville, in September, 1863. The jury found a verdict in favor of plaintiff for $23, subject to the opinion of the Court upon a point of law reserved, viz: Whether Allegheny county or the United States should pay the amount, the plaintiff having held the inquest on the Arsenal grounds. The matter will be argued on the last day of the term, by Thomas E. Marshall and R. B. Carnahan, Esqrs.

In the case of Parker Hines and wife, in which a verdict for damages to the amount of $2,500 was obtained against the Pittsburgh, Fort Wayne and Chicago Railroad Company, J. H. Hampton, Esq., moved for a new trial, filing reasons.

Joseph Lodink vs. D. P. Hatch and Joseph Zewer, owners of steamboat Home. Defendants during the war rented a number of flats from plaintiff, but river business not being as brisk as anticipated, they did not use the flats, permitted them to lay at different points, and finally they became damaged and lost sight of. Verdict in favor of plaintiff for $1,200.

William Dilworth vs. John Carnar and A. F. Baum, composing the firm of Baum & Co. Action to recover the value of timber sold on contract. On trial at adjournment.

Rumored Rising of Canadian Fenians.

NEW YORK, June 8.—The Herald has a rumor of the departure, some time since, of a Fenian privateer from this port. A full crew, with arms and munitions of war, were put on board in Long Island Sound, when she stood to sea. The vessel is an iron side-wheel ex-British blockade runner and ex-United States gunboat, and was sold in Philadelphia last August for nineteen thousand dollars, and towed here. She is said to be in the condition in which she was left by the Navy Department, and mounts six broadside guns and one pivot gun. The Fenians are said to have bought her for thirty thousand dollars. It is said she is capable of fourteen knot speed, and it is the intention to procure upon one of the Cunard steamers.

The Tribune's special from Malone, last night, says the arrest of General Heffernan caused the deepest despondency in the Fenian ranks. He had gone to the depot to take the train for St. Albans, from which point an attack was to be made at once. On reaching the depot an old acquaintance named Major Mount, of Albany, met and shook hands with him. Mount then went to Major Silvey, of the United States regulars, and pointed Heffernan out as a leading Fenian. He also pointed out Col. Quinn. Both were immediately arrested. The officers then proceeded to the hotel and arrested Gen. Murphy.

The following list comprises the arrests made: Generals Murphy and Heffernan, Captain Lyndsay, Colonel Reilly, of Rochester, Lieutenant O'Brien, New York; Colonel Eaton, New Jersey; Colonel Quinn, Albany; Captain O'Grady, Albany; Dr. Shiner, New York; Captain Joseph Murphy, Major Kinneally, Albany; Major Connely, New Jersey; Captain Hanlon, Captain Gerary, and Captain Glass. Two hours were given them to explain the true state of affairs to their men, to counsel submission to the authorities and accept means of transportation to their homes. The men are entirely destitute.

The greatest excitement followed the arrests, and threats of all sorts were made.

A man denounced as a spy, was seized upon and horribly beaten under the eyes of the Regulars, who looked on without evincing the least disposition to interfere in behalf. The officers commanding the Regulars became bewildered, scarcely knowing what to do. They had every good reason to believe the they could not make their men attack the Fenians, many of whom had served with them in the late rebellion.

Meanwhile, Major Silvey went to Heffernan and Murphy and besought them to come out and quiet the disturbance and disperse the crowd. They readily acquiesced, and spoke to the crowd at some length, beseeching them to keep untarnished the reputation they had gained under the "Stars and Stripes" in the war of the rebellion, by keeping quiet and doing nothing to disgrace the cause they now had in their keeping. The crowd then quietly dispersed.

The men are held under a strong military guard, and will probably be taken to Ogdensburg to-morrow.

The Fenians were to move along the whole line to-night on Montreal.

A Montreal special says: All the inhabitants on the borders are leaving with their families for the United States for protection. The Seventh Fusileers, regulars, left for West Farnham, the probable scene of an early battle. The Royal Volunteers are under marching orders. It is reported that to-morrow is the day fixed for the rising of the Canadian Fenians.

A Buffalo, New York, special special says General Lynch has ordered his men to return to their homes. A rumor was current there, however, that the Fenians would cross below Rochester last night.

A Detroit, Michigan, special of the 7th says that five hundred Fenians arrived from Chicago. The reported invasion of Canada via Bayfield, is denied.

There are eighteen hundred British troops at Goodrick, seventeen companies at Sarnia, nine hundred men at Windsor, and a regiment force below, with a reserve of two thousand at Chatham. The Canadians have armed several steamers. The United States revenue cutter John Sherman, and Andrew Johnson, are ordered to enforce the neutrality law.

BOSTON, June 7.—The St. Albans correspondent of the Journal says of the Fenian advance into Canada: The arrest of Generals Sweney dispirited the men. He made a speech, however, to cheer them up. He told them that they were going to fight their old enemy. He said they must not leave their wives or children, but that he should give them no instructions as to what they might do with the men who might fall into their hands.

Not more than one-fourth of the Fenians that marched into Canada are armed. They went into a field and encamped a short distance beyond the line. Grog, spear had been drinking and was somewhat intoxicated. Some of his men obtained whisky, and were feeling well notwithstanding the dispiriting circumstances. Others were disheartened. They had very little to eat. About one hundred and fifty purchased meals at the hotels. Others eat crackers and coffee. Reinforcements were sent on out from St. Albans to-day. There are no Canadian troops within twenty miles of where General Spear has stationed his troops.

Rumored Release of Jeff. Davis—Emigration Matter in Congress—The Mexico Question—Niagara Ship Canal Bill.

NEW YORK, June 8.—Special dispatches to the morning papers say. A report is in circulation that Jeff. Davis is to be immediately liberated on bail. It is quite certain that the Federal authorities here have given the subject no consideration since the postponement of his trial was determined upon, and it is not likely to be brought up for some time to come.

The Senate Committee on Commerce have instructed their Chairman, Mr. Chandler, to report adversely upon the House bill to facilitate emigration. The Committee also instructed Mr. Chandler to recommend the repeal of the act of 1864, introduced by Mr. Harris, creating the Bureau of Emigration.

The House Committee on Foreign Affairs had another long session to-day over the Mexican question. They were unable, however, to arrive at any definite conclusion beyond the fact that the Monroe Doctrine must be maintained.

The merchants of Chicago, fearing that the New York interest in the Senate may defeat the House Niagara Ship Canal bill, proposed to-day, by telegraph, to send on a delegation there to urge the matter, but the Illinois delegation do not deem it necessary, and feel the utmost confidence that the bill will pass just as it came from the House.

From Mexico—Trouble Between Colonists and Indians—Maximilian Short of Funds.]

NEW YORK, June 8.—VERA CRUZ advices to the 25th of May, state that trouble is brewing between the Mexican colonists in Colorado and the Indians who formerly occupied the land.

It was rumored that a representation from the Mexican Brotherhood had been very cordially received by Maximilian. It was supposed the representation came on official Fenian business.

The Emperor was hard pressed for funds. Carlotta, the Empress, refuses to supply him from her own money any longer.

Latest from Jamaica.

NEW YORK, June 8.—Advices from Kingston, Jamaica, of May 21st, say that the Governor has given orders that all broken packages of goods must be inspected by an officer of the Customs before the drawback will be allowed on their exportation. The Kingston Journal, of the 16th of May, says the clergy bill will expire in a short time, and it is subject for serious consideration whether it ought to be re-enacted.

Newspaper Seized.

NEW YORK, June 8.—A dispatch from Augusta, Ga., to the Tribune, says: The military, by the order of General Tilison, have taken possession of the printing office of the Loyal Georgian.

The Execution of Probst.

OFFICE UNITED STATES PRIZE CONSERT, } WIGGINS, BRADFORD & CO., Proprietors. }

WE WOULD MOST RESPECTFULLY announce that in consideration of the following cogent facts of we trust satisfactory reasons, we have finally concluded that a postponement would be equally advantageous to the public and ourselves, namely, that we prefer to than to hold a quantity of tickets (as proprietors usually do) and thereby exhaust our chances of drawing the large prizes.

The drawn numbers will be published in the Chicago daily papers as soon as drawn, and when the drawing is over each agent will be furnished with a complete list of the drawn numbers.

In view of the above reasons, which we hope will prove eminently satisfactory,

WE HAVE POSTPONED THE DRAWING

CITY AND NEIGHBORHOOD.

Additional on First and Third Pages.

The Summer Fashions.

The excessively warm weather of yesterday brought out the ladies in their new summer attire, and if we were fashionable critics we should endeavor to describe the latest styles. To those ladies, however, who have not yet selected their summer dry goods, we may venture a few remarks concerning where they are to buy their dress goods, knowing that it is a matter of difficulty to select a purchasing house in a city so large as Pittsburgh. We know of no better house to patronize than that of Bates & Bell, No. 21 Fifth street. They have just received a large addition to their stock of dry goods, which enables them to offer customers selections of the latest and most fashionable styles and patterns. Their shelves are groaning beneath the weight of prints, chintzes, silks, satins, calicos and peace goods of every description, which have been purchased since the decline of prices. A beautiful display of lace curtains, gilt cornices, vestibule laces, table damasks, napkins, towels, crash, honey-comb quilts, striped ducks, linen shirt fronts, handkerchiefs and other articles of adornment will be found there. Every dep rtment was be found stocked with fresh goods, and in charge of attentive and obliging clerks. It is deemed no trouble to show goods, and the shopping community are earnestly invited to call in and see for themselves. It is one of the oldest as well as the most prosperous houses of the city, and their exact system in doing business is the secret of their popularity and success.

Lubricating Oil.

Machinists and engineers frequently experience much difficulty in obtaining a satisfactory quality of lubricating oil. Most of that in the market contains gritty substances which renders it almost useless for delicate machinery, and retards instead of accelerating the motion of wheels and pulleys. There is a firm, however, in this city, who manufacture a very prime and superior lubricator from Petroleum, which is used extensively in nearly all the mines in the Union. We refer to Messrs. Buffum, Kehew and Company, of the Soho Oil works, office No. 35 Market street, whose card appears in another column. In addition to their celebrated petroleum oil lubricators, they manufacture and keep for sale all kinds of white burning oils, sperm, lard and whale oils, head light, tanners' oil and wheel grease, which they offer at the lowest market rates. The gentlemen composing this firm are fair dealing and honorable men, eminently worthy the large share of public patronage extended to them from all quarters of the country.

The Card of the old and well known bell manufacturers and brass founders, A. Fulton, Sons & Co., appears in another column. This is one of the oldest foundries west of the mountains, having been established many years ago, when our city was but a rude town. The bells manufactured by them are universally used upon all of the rivers of this country, and there is scarcely a village within an hundred miles of us which does not contain in its bell tower one of "Fulton's best." The firm manufacture bells of all sizes, from the tiny little toy bell, weighing a few ounces, up to the monster church bell weighing 20,000 pounds. They also manufacture all descriptions of brass fittings for gas, water and steam machinery, whistles for locomotives and steamboats, and the most delicate of brass globe valves, which have hitherto been exclusively manufactured in the East. The firm is composed of practical business men, all of whom have had nearly a life-time experience in their business. They are attentive, honorable and fair dealing gentlemen, and in every way worthy of the patronage of the community. Mr. W. S. Lytle will be found in the business office, as usual, always willing to exhibit the extensive departments of the foundry to the caller, and attend to receiving orders from purchasers.

Amusements.

Charlotte Thompson—than whom there is no finer or graceful exponent of the drama in this country—was greeted by a fair audience last night at the Opera House. At the matinee this afternoon she appears as Gertrude in Little Treasure. In the evening the beautiful domestic drama of the Cricket will be presented, with Miss Thompson as Fadet.

T. E. Jackson, the new comedian, created quite a furore on his appearance last evening. His singing is really very fine, and we opine that ere long he will become an established favorite here.

To-night W. C. Gallagher takes a benefit at the Theatre, when an immense bill is offered, consisting of the Gladiators and the Orphans of Geneva. In the latter piece the beneficiary plays the leading role. Of course there will be a full house.

Found Drowned.—Yesterday afternoon the body of an unknown man was found floating in the Monongahela river at the foot of Short street, in front of the coal ing Coal Hill. The body was conveyed to Devore's Coffin Rooms, where an inquest was held and a verdict of found drowned was rendered. In a few hours after the remains were interred at Hillside Cemetery the heat of the weather not permitting delay. A deck hand named Noah Raub, a native of Belgium, Ohio, but for some time past a resident of Cincinnati, fell from the steamer Rose Hambleton on last Tuesday, at the foot of Market street and was drowned. The Raub mentioned above is supposed to be that of Raub.

Free Fight.—A row took place last night, about twelve o'clock, at the William Tell House, on Water street, where a dance was being held. Joe Lynch and Thomas Farrel were arrested as participators in the disturbance and locked up.

Summer Underwear.—Murdock and Putnam, dealers in gentlemen's furnishing goods, 72 Fifth street, have just received a large addition to their fine stock of summer underwear. For any thing in the line, call at this favorite house.

Assault and Battery.—Daniel Mayhew yesterday convicted Henry Grimes, a prisoner in the county jail, for assault and battery, alleged to have been committed on the 24th of March last. Alderman Lynch entertained the case.

A Colored Divine Accused.—Alderman Lynch yesterday entertained the complaint of Edna Lewis against Joseph Smith, a colored Divine, for obtaining boarding under false representations. A warrant was issued.

Fire Alarm.—The alarm of the Ninth ward fire yesterday was communicated to the fire depart ment by a telegram over the lines of Reese, Graff and Dull's rolling mill house, by Wm. Ramsey, Esq.

Sentenced.—Daniel Farmer and John Showalter, convicted of stealing chickens and a "pony goat," were sentenced yesterday, by Judge Sterrett, to two years' imprisonment in the Western Penitentiary.

Discharged.—Ellen Prussian, informed against for keeping a disorderly house, before Alderman Strain, was discharged yesterday, the prosecution failing to establish a probable case.

False Alarm.—The alarm of fire last evening about ten o'clock, was caused by t e burning of a straw-stack in the rear of Howless court, in the Ninth ward.

Committed.—Herman Baw was committed to jail yesterday by Alderman Nicholson to answer a charge of false pretenses, on oath of G. W. Backofen.

Fined.—Louis Heidman was fined $5 and costs yesterday, by Alderman Donaldson, for using profane ladguage on St. Clair street.

We have received from W. A. Glidenfenny, 45 Fifth Street, No. 4 of the Galaxy, being the issue for June 15th.

AN ORDINANCE for the Levying and collecting of a Borough Tax, and for appropriating the revenue for the year A. D. 1866.

SECTION 1. Be it ordained and enacted by the Burgess and Town Council of the Borough of Manchester in Council met, and it is hereby ordained and enacted by the authority of the same, That there be assessed, levied and collected from the persons and property made taxable by law, a tax of five (5) mills on the dollar, on the actual county valuation for the use of the borough for the year A. FINANCE AND TRADE.

FRIDAY, June 8, 1866.

Gold has still farther declined, being quoted down to 140¾, but it subsequently rallied and closed at 141¼. The following are the New York quotations to-day as received by Mr. P. R. Mertz: 1881's, 109⅝; 5-20's, old, 102¼@102⅜; new, 102¼; 10-40's, 95⅞@96; 7-30's, 102¼. Cleveland & Pittsburgh Railroad, 82½; Pittsburgh & Fort Wayne, 97½; Erie, 62½.

Large amounts of 7-30 bonds are now being offered for sale at a slight reduction in prices, and should shipment from the West continue, the probability is that these securities will still further depreciate in value. The high gold premium prevents heavy shipments of 5-20s from Europe, and those now en route cannot be sold at present value of greenbacks. As an investment they will yield 8¼ per cent, and those who are conversant with the relative value of our securities are putting all their available means in these bonds, and disposing of their 7-30s.

The high premium on gold has induced many parties to sell short; their immediate cash sales has had the effect of lowering rate considerably, assisted by the more favorable advices from England. The demand for cash gold is said to be light, and it is to be presumed that the shipments by the steamer to-day will not exceed those of last Saturday. The gold balance in the Treasury is about fifty millions, less certificates of twenty-eight millions, which leaves the government about twenty millions to be applied to the payment of interest and other purposes, and before July 1st, when nine millions become due on 1881 bonds, ten millions are expected to be received from customs.

Mining stocks generally are dull, and oil stocks are almost completely out of sight. Bank stocks, with the exception of M. & M. and Exchange, are quiet and dull, but without change. Money market continues close, and this always has a tendency to retard stock operations.

—The advices from the Venango oil regions continue of a rather unfavorable character. The Titusville Herald, of Thursday, says:

"Oil at the wells is slightly firmer than has been for several days, owing to the creek being navigable. There are several strangers in the the market who have bought small lots from 200 to 300 barrels for the Pittsburgh markets. We do not hear of any large operators buying. Whether these parties are buying for speculation or on orders does not appear, but they readily pay $4.10 for their oil cash down.

"Oil is firm in Petroleum Centre at $4.10. Some sales have been reported in Franklin at $3.75. The amount of oil which has so far been shipped to Pittsburgh is limited.

There is a considerable amount of oil stored both in Titusville and on the creek which will, if held long enough, bring better prices. Although there is no indication in the eastern markets of an immediate advance, still the prevailing opinion appears to exist that they will suddenly take a start upwards. Those who buy oil to come this way evince a disposition to hold off until the Pittsburgh market is supplied."

—The details in our Philadelphia exchanges in regard to the failure of a prominent banking house in that city are very meagre. The Press, of Thursday says:

The Third street community were somewhat fluttered yesterday by the reports of failures among gold operators. Only one break, however, has come to light, though with many persons there is a strong belief that others are in a shaky condition. The difficulty arises out of selling too much gold "short," and the difficulty of making good their contracts at the present high figures.

The News of the same day says:

The only serious result which we have heard of arising from the recent advance in gold is the failure of the house of M. Shulz & Co., whose liabilities are said to reach the very respectable figure of one million eight hundred thousand dollars. The firm was largely engaged in drawing foreign bills of exchange, which have been thrown in consequence of its speculations in gold.

—The New York World, of the 7th, says:

The shipments of specie to-day were $1,675,000, against on Saturday it is estimated that they will amount to between four and five millions dollars, making the total for the week between eight and nine millions. Exports have been heavy, and to the extent beyond anything that our past experience can give the least idea of. The letters of the Secretary of the Treasury and Assistant Treasurer at this port are of importance to every business man, inasmuch as they announce the principles which regulate the policy of the Treasury Department. We therefore would do well to keep them constantly at hand for immediate reference.

—In view of the heavy shipments of gold, and the high premium it now commands, the New York Tribune very appropriately remarks:

"Had our currency been based on specie, such a draft upon us for coin would have diminished all current values from 10 to 25 per cent, causing very general embarrassment if not absolute stagnation. As it is, the result is but a sudden derangement of values less obviously disastrous only because the loss is thrown on the creditor rather than the debtor interest, so long and so strenuously idolized. We cannot sober down the general mind to the ways of quiet, plodding industry, while the medium wherein values are computed and settled is so unstable as to fluctuate to the extent of 15 per cent in a month.

"We must get back to specie payment at a very early day, unless we are content to settle down into a nation of gamblers, wherein every business operation is in essence a compound of wheat-cloth and table-rig. But indispensable, condition precedent of specie payment is a reduction of our imports till they range very considerably below our exports."

—The Chicago Journal, of the 7th, says:

The active movement in Grain keeps up a brisk demand for money and the market is, if anything, closer than on yesterday. Country buyers are pressing for funds, and the wants of the mercantile community are on the increase as the general business of the city is quite active. Banks are scarcely in a position to furnish currency through loans to lending Wall street banking firms for six days without interest, and payable in legal tenders. The notes have been sent into the interior by the firm borrowing them. Gold is decidedly weak, there being a reaction from the advance in the premium yesterday. About two million of double eagles were received yesterday from the interior. Foreign Exchange dull and weak. There is decidedly more derived for time bills.

Chicago Cattle Market.

CHICAGO, June 7.—The fresh receipts of beef cattle at the Union Stock Yards to-day are 1,108 head; at prices ranging from $5@6.50 for common cows and stock steers; $6.00@6.80 for Ordinary to good shipping steers and $6.90 for good to choice shipping beeves. The market is fairly active on best shipping steers but for common grades there is a reduction of from 25@50c per 100 lbs, and few buyers of that class of stock. The yards are nearly full, owing to the accumulation of stock and the arrival of the Texan cattle noticed above. Buyers are holding off, as a general thing, in anticipation of a lower range of prices.

East Saginaw Lumber Market.

EAST SAGINAW, June 4.—We heard to-day of sales being made at a decided advance in the upper grades, ranging as high as $7, $16 and $8. Perhaps these lots may have been of a very superior quality and cut; but there is no doubt that prices are tending upward. The demand continues unabated, and everything is being sold a month in advance of sawing.

PITTSBURGH MARKETS.

The produce markets are becoming less active, as the demand for most of the leading articles is beginning to slack off somewhat, and some of our merchants seem to entertain the opinion that business generally, and especially the produce business, will be very dull and depressed during the coming summer months. The advance in gold has not appreciated values as much as generally expected, for notwithstanding it has run up ten per cent within the past ten days, Flour Grain, Provisions and many articles have undergone no quotable change during the same time. The principal cause for this is the fact that there is no foreign demand, and the fact that the growing crops promise much better than during the early part of the Spring, has a tendency to restrict speculation.

GRAIN—Wheat is quiet and unchanged at $2.20 to $2.25 for No 1 Northwestern and Club. Corn is in good supply but unchanged; we continue to quote at 80 to 85 for mixed and prime yellow on track. Barley is quoted at 90 to $1 for good to prime Spring. Sale of 300 bush Rye at $1; 750 bush Buckwheat at $2.25; 50 bush "Greyback" do at $2.50; and 300 bush Oats from store at 60.

FLOUR—is less active but unchanged. Regular sales from store at $10.50 to $11 for Spring Wheat; $11@$11½ for half Spring and half Winter; and $12¼@12½, for all Winter. Rye Flour is quoted firm at $6.50@6.75.

PROVISIONS—Bacon is firm and looking up, but as yet unchanged. The demand seems to be confined mostly to Shoulders and Canvassed Sugar Cured Hams, and we continue to quote at 14½@14¾ for the former, and 23@23½ for the latter, and is dull but unchanged, at 22½@23. Mess Pork held at $32.50.

POTATOES—Dull but unchanged, and the receipts are again becoming light. Sale of 300 bush Peach Blows at $1.15 per bush. In small lots, quotations may be given at $1.20 per bush, and $3.25@3.35 per bbl.

PIG LEAD—Sale of 500 pigs at 11½c—an advance.

BUTTER—There is no improvement to note in the demand, and the market continues very dull; prime Roll may be quoted at 20 to 22.

EGGS—Quiet and unchanged at 24@25—supply fully equal to the demand.

CHEESE—New Western Reserve is coming in pretty freely, and is a little dull, but unchanged at 16@17.

PITTSBURGH PETROLEUM MARKET.

CRUDE—The report of a rise in the river at Oil City, and the certainty of a resumption of navigation for a short time at least, together with the fact that gold has declined to 140, had a tendency to make the market for crude even duller than it was yesterday, and with these facts in view, holders were more anxious to realize. We can report a sale of 93 barrels at 14, bbls returned; 400 bbls, "Smith's Ferry," at 14, and 1,000 bbls on private terms—the latter parcel have been at a fraction less than 14, though we believe the gravity was rather light. There seems to be a demand for the transport, and our refiners continue to hold off, in anticipation of lower rates. The advices from the east are by no means encouraging, and upon the whole the market is very unstable, and the indications for the future, are not as promising as they might be.

REFINED—The demand for bonded oil continues rather active, and the market is dull with a drooping tendency. We can report a sale of 500 bbls for immediate delivery in Philadelphia, at 31c, and 500 bbls, seller's option, at 33. Yesterday and the day before there were quite a number of orders at 41@42, but to-day 41 was the figure that could be obtained, and even at that no very large amount could have been sold. There is beginning to be some little inquiry for free oil, both for present and future delivery, and we hear of a sale of 100 bbls for August, at 58; 200 for September, at 60; and 200 for October at 62.

NAPTHA AND RESIDUUM—There is still some inquiry for Residuum, and we can report a sale of 500 bbls at $5.35 per bbl, an advance of ten cents per bbl as compared with the sales on Thursday. For Naptha, there is no demand whatever, and we are not aware of a sale having been effected for several months.

ARRIVALS—As the river is again in good navigable condition, we may expect that the receipts of oil during the next few days will be much larger than during the few days past. The arrivals reported to-day were as follows:

W. Haldeman	50	Fisher & Bro	2400
Jas. Wilkins	21	Hope & Logan	150
Romeo	38	Duncan & Dunlap	45
Total			3440

The banks have very generally relieved themselves of their late loans to various of national bank currency through loans to lending Wall street banking firms for six days without interest, and payable in legal tenders. RIVER NEWS.

The river is still receding slowly here, with three feet nine inches in the channel by the pier marks last evening. Telegrams from Oil City convey the unexpected intelligence of a rise of nearly two feet in the Allegheny river at that point, and according to the latest dispatches it was still swelling, with thirty nine to forty inches in the channel. The rise, we understand, comes from French Creek, and the Clarion River. Here, the weather continues cloudy and very hot in the sun.

The Lent Leoti, from Parkersburg, is the only arrival we have to report. The Forest City, from the same point, and the Fayette and Chieftan, from Brownsville, are due here this morning. The Tahlequah, from Cincinnati, ought to arrive here to-day.

At the Allegheny steamboat landing quietness reigns supreme. The Ida Rees is the only arrival we have to report. She got up to within about thirty miles of Oil City, where after losing nineteen hours, she was compelled to transfer her freight and passengers to the little steamer Tidioute, and turn back.

The Revenue left for Portsmouth last evening with a moderate trip. If the Camelia did not get off for Cincinnati last night, she will leave to-day positively.

The Nora is next on the list for Cincinnati and Louisville after the Camelia, and she will be ready to take her departure on Monday evening.

The Lorena is receiving freight for Saint Louis, and will be ready to leave early next week.

The following boats are in port: Julia, Kate Putnam, Arabian, Pine Bluff, Armenia, Leonidas, Lorena, Wauauta, Nora and Camelia. Busines continues rather dull at the landing, the offerings of freight for all points being rather limited. The passenger trade has fallen off very much during the past few weeks, and boats now rely almost entirely on freights.

The Leonora, Silver Cloud and Citizen were advertised to leave Cincinnati for Pittsburgh on Thursday, and the Petrolia for White river.

The little steamer Petrolia No 2, in command of Capt. Thompson will plyas a regular packet hereafter between Mahoning and Brady's Bend, making connections with the Allegheny Valley Railroad.

The Fayette, Capt. Cox, and the Chieftan, Capt. Abrams, are the regular packets for Brownsville and Geneva to-day, leaving promptly at 5 p. m. These are both excellent passenger steamers, and their officers will see that passengers and shippers receive every proper attention. The Chieftan had a pleasure party on board during her last trip, and we have no doubt the excursionists had a very pleasant time.

A CHANCE TO OWN A STEAMBOAT.—The hand some little steamer Fort Pitt, after spending the winter in Conneaut lake, arrived at this port, all safe and sound, and took up her old quarters at the Fort Pitt Foundry. She was brought around by those jolly good fellows, Capt. James Scott, Col. Jos. Kaye, and Major Jones Smith. They looked like a portion of Sir John Franklin's Arctic Exploring expedition after the fatigues of their trip. The Fort Pitt will immediately be put in apple-pie order, refitted throughout, and repainted, and then, we understand, will be put up, and raffled off. The fortunate winner will have the satisfaction of owning one of the handsomest little pleasure boats afloat.

The Cincinnati Commercial, of Thursday, says:

High wind prevailed all day, making the river unusually rough. The St. James, while making a landing at the foot of Broadway, was blown against the Argonaut No. 2, damaging the wheel of the latter.

The Rose Hambletop extended her trip to Pittsburgh this trip. She is due here on Monday night, if all is well.

An elderly gentleman, named Kooch, a German, a dealer in birds, died very suddenly on the Golden Eagle, on Monday morning, and was buried at Flint Island. He was destined for Cincinnati.

The late destructive steamboat fire at St. Louis, was, as usual, thought to be the work of an incendiary. It originated in the cabin of the Bostona. The hulls of the Bostona and Raymond sunk at the wharf. The hull of the Ida Handy was saved.
